Gathering Prayer

*Lord, as this season of resurrection hope draws us towards Pentecost, we are increasingly aware of the abiding presence of your Spirit. So many think God is far away. But your Spirit comes to our side to draw us into your embrace. We gather with expectation that you want to meet us and bless us. And we can feel your blessing when we worship, when we fellowship and when we serve others in your name. Reveal yourself to us afresh as we lift high the name of Jesus, our risen Lord.
Amen.*

Prayer for Children: Join Pastor Dan Friday at 11:30 AM on the front lawn (Room 115 if raining). Write on a fish/card the concerns and hopes about your children or extended relationships, dropping it into the fishbowl in Room 115. You are welcome to stop in; we are available to pray for children and families on the spot.

The Koinonia Class is part of Cross Training and meets in Room 114 at 9:45. This gathering of adults of all ages is doing a study of Christian Beliefs with Karen Flexer as facilitator.

VBS volunteer helpers still needed. See list posted of those who have taken on duties, as well as duties that need filling. Contact Heather Parsons and sign up on the posting if you can help. Let’s make this year’s VBS from Sunday July 23 through Thursday 27 a great success.

We are glad to welcome Nathan Bryson back to lead us in music this morning while Paula Dollarhide takes some time off. Nathan is from North Carolina and currently serves as the curator of the organ at Boardwalk Hall in Atlantic City.

Our Daily Bread devotionals for the next quarter, June through August 2017, are available on the table in the back of the sanctuary. (This quarter's March through May, 2017 are also still available).
