Gathering Hymn #21 (vv.1,2,3)

Stand Up and Bless the Lord

Gathering Prayer

God of all time and this season, out of the swirling chaos that so often becomes our lives, we cry to you. We pray not just for ourselves, but for all the Jobs of our time, whose days seem empty of your blessings. For those who have experienced the loss of financial stability, whose resources have come to an end, who wonder how bills will be paid and mouths will be filled, we come in worship to bow down before you. Assure us of your mercy to be our constant companion as we journey this path, sometimes in the garden of plenty and also in the wilderness of want. Through all the seasons we proclaim that you are a God who cares. In the name of Christ, Amen.
